We're Celebrating 18 Years Today!

The first Eastern Shore Post was published June 2, 1999.

By Connie Morrison, Editor

What can happen in 18 years?

Emily Justis, whose birth was announced in the first edition of the Eastern Shore Post, will graduate on June 9 from Nandua High School. In November, sports writer Krystle Bono was on hand as Justis signed her letter of intent to play softball for Florida State University.

Eighteen years have seen the disappearance of some favorite local businesses — Hunger Haven and Stella's restaurants, Cheriton and Nock's hardware stores, Little World and Exmore Marine, to name a few — and the advent of new favorites.

It seems unimaginable that 18 years ago was a time before smart phones, when important people — or those who wanted to be seen as such — carried pagers.

And 18 years was just enough time for a small start-up newspaper called the Eastern Shore Post to work its way from debut to the number one newspaper on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. Circulation was 8,000 then; now 14,000 copies are distributed every week.

Cheryl Nowak (now Sterling) and Candy Farlow distributed the first copies by hand at the Parksley Festival. Ad Manager Troy Justis, the only original employee still with the Post, sold ads to some folks who are still advertising with the Post today: John C. Miller, Doughty Ford/Kool Ford, Eastern Shore Rural Health, Little Italy, Baskets & Bows, Jaxon's and Jaxon's Hardware, Riverside/Shore Memorial Hospital, Coldwell Banker, C.D. Marsh and Heritage Hall. Like Troy's haircut, when you find a good thing, you stick with it.

At Attention for Accomack Veterans

More than 500 people turned out under threatening skies for the dedication of a memorial to honor Accomack County veterans. Pictured are Cmdr. Jeff Lock, Chaplain Albert Crockett, and Shirley Burkhead Johnson. Johnson headed up the drive to purchase and install the memorial. See the full story and photographs on pages 22 and 23.

BODY OF AQUAFARM WORKER RECOVERED; COAST GUARD RESPONDS TO TWO OTHER INCIDENTS

By Linda Cicaira

The body of a Cherrystone Aquafarms worker was recovered May 26 from Cherrystone Inlet.

Anthony "Amp" Thomas, 48, of Sheraton, one of three men on the 27-foot Carolina Skiff that capsized the previous day, was identified as the victim, according to several reports. A good Samaritan rescued the two others on May 25.

The watermen were heading back after harvesting clams, around 4 p.m., when the incident occurred. Thomas was not wearing a life vest and reportedly did not know how to swim. Officials say waves were around two-feet-high with winds around 10- to 15-knots when the boat capsized in about six feet of water.

The company has set up a GoFundMe account for Thomas' family and asked for prayers for Thomas on Facebook.

In another incident, May 26, Coast Guard Air Station Elizabeth City hoisted two boaters from a yacht that was on fire near Fisherman's Island. Those on the 50-foot vessel, Delgatie, were not identified. A crew hoisted them and took them to Coast Guard Base Portsmouth to be assessed for injuries. A Virginia Beach Fire Department fireboat crew and the Coast Guard crews remained on the scene to extinguish the fire.

"Our relationships with other response agencies allowed us to successfully work together to assist the boaters and bring them to safety," said Petty Officer 1st Class Brian R. Richardson, of Sector Hampton Roads. "The boaters did everything right; they used their radio, and it led to their rescue." The yacht is currently anchored and owners are working to salvage the vessel.

Milford Haven Guard crews rescued a man early Tuesday 10 miles southwest of Tangier. A report that the sailboat, Sweet Revenge, had struck a submerged object and was taking on water in stormy weather was received. One man was reported aboard.

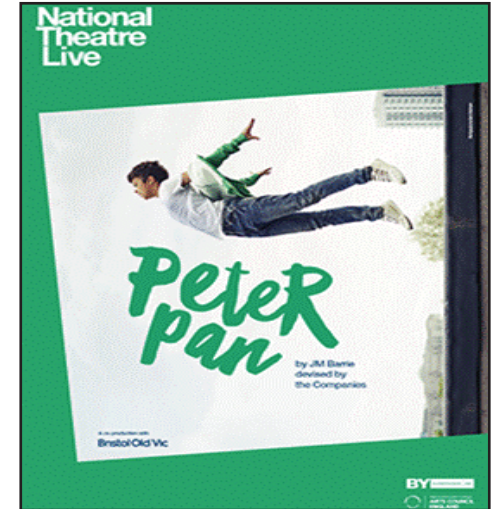

Upon arrival, the crew reported the sailor showed signs of disorientation and fatigue. He was taken back to the station where EMS were standing by. However, he declined treatment and returned to his Virginia Beach home. Two-foot seas and 20-knot winds were reported. The owner said he would arrange commercial salvage of the vessel later that day.

Roseland Cinema and Entertainment Center To Present "Peter Pan"

Roseland Cinema and Entertainment Center suggests you mark your calendars for a special showing of "Peter Pan," Saturday, June 10, at 6:30 p.m., and Sunday, June 11, at 2:30 p.m.

National Theater Live in London captured this performance of "Peter Pan" from the acclaimed, sold-out run at the Bristol Old Vic Theater. This wondrously inventive performance explores the possibilities and pain of growing up. It's a riot of magic, mischief, music and make-believe. Admission is $15 for adults and $5 for children and students with IDs.

Northampton Students Receive Awards from School Board

By Ron West

Jada Smith stepped onto the stage and flawlessly sang for Northampton's school board and others in attendance last week.

It was impressive since the junior at Northampton High performed Per la d'adorarvi Gloria, from the Opera Griselda, composed by Giovanni Bononcini. And she sang it in Italian.

The language isn't taught at her school, so Jada had to learn it with the assistance of family, friends and Northampton's music and chorus instructor Kevin Schwenk.

Superintendent Eddie Lawrence, addressing the large crowd of students, family, and their friends, noted more than 130 students would be receiving recognition for accomplishments in everything from fine arts to robotics. One by one, each of the students from kindergarten to Grade 12 stepped forward to be honored. Each went beyond the day-to-day requirements for their classes in order to learn extra skills and in many cases, to compete with other students in the region.

Also at the session, the board discussed revisions to its fiscal 2018 budget. Lawrence was optimistic that the 1.5 percent raise for the school staff and a small increase for the system's insurance program was possible. Assistant Superintendent Annette Gray informed the board that two additional students from previous school terms would be included in this year's graduation class as they have completed the requirements for their diplomas.

Northampton High's graduation will be at 10 a.m., Saturday, June 17, at the school.

Cheriton Day, June 10, Will Be Fun in the Park

By Ron West

A cakewalk, games of chance, pony rides, food vendors, and a favorite of many, the dunking booth, will be part of Cheriton Day, hosted by the town, on June 10, at the park.

Mayor Joe Habel said a portion of South Bayside Road would be blocked off for safety and golf carts will be available to assist people in getting to the site.

Last week, Habel and the council again discussed advertising for bids to demolish a derelict house on Mill Street. He noted a change in regulations would allow more businesses to submit bids. Interested parties can contact the town office at 757-331-8200.

The ongoing issue of drainage was also a topic. After additional investigation, it appeared a pipe near the business district would need to be repaired.

Councilwoman Mary Mears suggested having a fall cleanup day to help ready the town for winter. Council agreed and set Oct. 14, from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., for the event.

In Less Than 10 Minutes, Selection Commission Appoints Two to School Board

By Linda Cicaira

Accomack School Board member Margaret Miles of Election District 4 was re-appointed to her post for a third four-year term Tuesday by the School Board Selection Commission. Jesse Speidel, a native of Chincoteague, was picked to fill the unexpired term of Travis Thornton of District 1, through 2019.

Both got the nod of the eight commission members who were in attendance. They were Chairwoman Jodi Greene, of Parksley, Lisa Johnson, of Horntown, Vernon Bell, of Wachapreague, Edward Justice, of Atlantic, Martha Simpson, of Parksley, S. Scott Chesson, of Chincoteague, Dreux Alvare, of Accomac and Carolyn Richardson, of Onancock. Milton Bunting, of Pungoteague, was absent.

There was no conversation publicly amongst the members who also nixed going into a closed session to deliberate. Speidel had no competition for the seat. However, school advocate Connie Burford had put her name in for the District 4 post and the public hearing got tense when accusations were tossed around about both Miles and Burford.

Margaret Hampton, an Onancock parent, listed reasons Miles should not have been reappointed. She said, test scores were down, a state audit showed $6.2 million had been stockpiled, sewage was found on Metompkin Elementary School's playground, textbooks did not arrive until October and classic American novels were banned. Hampton also said Miles and the rest of the school board abused their power because Miles' granddaughter attends a school out of her home district and that Miles failed to properly investigate allegations of a secret meeting between three school board members and a then-candidate for the superintendent's job, Chris Holland.

Burford was accused by school board member George Waldenmaier of being a bully and a criminal.

Both Speidel and Miles thanked the commission for choosing them. Miles went around the board table and shook hands with each member.

Miles

"Connie, Thank you for your interest," Greene told Burford.

The public hearing went on for 90 minutes. This session, which included the reading of minutes for two previous meetings, took less than 10 minutes.

Burford, who supports having an elected school board, said later, "To say that I'm disappointed would be an understatement. To say the results were unexpected would be untrue. I had a pretty good idea from the past incidents what the result would be, which makes it sad when you think about it. To think that the outcome was that predictable is proof positive of how broken our current process is. Mrs. Miles is a good person and I wish her all the best, but we aren't seeing representation of the average or the struggling student through her and other members of the present board. Over the past several days I've had phone calls from parents and school people who empathize with my intentions. They've encouraged me to continue working on behalf of children and teachers, and that's what I'm going to do."

School Board Member Audrey Furness sat with Miles to hear the commission's decision.

Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics Slated for June 7

Submitted Article

The Virginia Law Enforcement Torch Run benefiting Special Olympics Virginia will pass through the Eastern Shore on Wednesday, June 7, as runners make their way to Richmond for the 2017 Summer Games on June 9 and 10.

The Eastern Shore run will begin on Chincoteague at 8 a.m. on June 7, and pass through Accomac, Onancock, Onley, Exmore, Eastville, Cheriton and Cape Charles and the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel before handing off the torch to the Virginia Beach region.

Beginning at seven places across Virginia, from June 3 to 9, more than 2,000 officers will carry the Special Olympics Flame of Hope more than 2,000 miles across Virginia. At 7 p.m., June 9, more than 100 officers will run the torch run's final leg into the University of Richmond's Robins Center Stadium. At 8 p.m., the Flame of Hope will be passed to a Special Olympics athlete, who then will light the olympic cauldron to officially open this year's summer games.

Now in its 32nd year, the torch run has raised more than $19 million for Special Olympics Virginia, including a record-breaking $1.3 million this year. For the officers involved, it's about more than carrying the torch. It's a mission; a serious commitment by the Virginia law enforcement community to pay homage to our heroes - the Special Olympics Virginia athletes and their families.

For more information, visit www.torchrunva.com. Everyone is invited to cheer on the officers as they make their way. To join the June 7 run, or to volunteer to help the fundraising committee, contact Investigator Terry A. Thomas of the Northampton County Sheriff's Office, at (757) 678-0495 or tthomas@co.northampton.va.us. Deloreans to Rock June 10 Summer Kickoff

Submitted Article

Although the Deloreans have collectively performed in six countries, for several heads of state and for three sitting US presidents with more than 2,000 shows under their belt, each performance is tailored to the audience they are playing for that night. When the six-member band takes the stage at the Eastern Shore Yacht & Country Club Saturday, June 10, for the club's summer kickoff event, it will be no different.

"We engage the audience and find out what they want to hear," said Melanie Waters. "I take on the Pat Benatar songs, another girl sings just like Tina Turner. One of the guys gets in the Billy Idol role and nails it. Every band member is a vocalist who has their own distinct sound."

Although the Deloreans play a wide variety of songs with a playlist topping 10 hours, they cover the 80s and wear costumes from that decade.

The Deloreans carries its own state-of-the-art sound and lighting production and also travels with its own professional sound and lighting engineers.

"This is a full-time job for us," said Waters. "We keep a busy schedule between performing and preparing for shows."

The group calls Hampton Roads its home but has played on the Eastern Shore several times through the years. "We played at Cape Charles last year and have performed on Chincoteague numerous times," said Waters. "It certainly is a beautiful area and we look forward to coming back where we know we have some fans."

The Summer Kickoff 2017 is open to the public with tickets $45 for non-members and $35 for members. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. with an a la carte menu including hot dogs, hamburgers, chicken sandwiches, fries and chips. Draft and canned beer and Orange Crush will also be available for purchase. The Deloreans will take the stage at 7 p.m.

Call the club at 757-787-1525 for more details or stop by the club to purchase tickets.

The Deloreans roll into town for a June 10 show at the Eastern Shore Country Club.

Free Little Library Ready for the Big Time

A new "Free Little Library" was installed in Onancock adjacent to the farmer's market. The Onancock Town Council and the Friends of the Library endorsed the project and location earlier this spring. Free Little Libraries are a national movement to make books available on the "take a book, leave a book" honor system. The charter for Onancock's library was granted to Kathy Carmody, who will also serve as its steward. It was designed and built by Andy Nunnally, of Belle Haven.

Extension Service: Tips for Sharing the Roadway Safely with Farm Equipment

Submitted Article

It's spring time and planting season on the Eastern Shore. The longer days are allowing for more hours spent on the farm and equipment is making its way on to roadways to travel from one field to the next. Motorists will find themselves sharing the road with large, slow-moving equipment and if not prepared or aware, a collision could occur. To avoid an accident with farm equipment, heed the following advice:

Be aware of and recognize farm vehicles early. Per the Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles' Driver's Manual, any farm machinery or equipment that travels less than 25 mph must display a slow-moving vehicle sign on the rear of the vehicle. Once you see this sign, slow down. The slow-moving vehicle sign is a triangular sign with a red reflective border and a fluorescent red-orange center. Some farm machinery or equipment may also display other signage or flashing lights that would help motorists to identify the machinery as slow-moving.

Watch for left-turning equipment. Do not assume that a farm vehicle that pulls to the right is making a right-hand turn or is letting you pass, they may be turning left. This left-hand turn requires a wide swing to line up with the driveway and if not prepared or aware, the motorist behind may intend to pass on the left and cause a collision. To avoid this, look for access roads or gates to the left before passing. Some newer machinery may be equipped with signal lights, farmers will use them in these cases.

Do not pass farm equipment unless it is safe. A motorist may pass a slow-moving vehicle if the roadway is clear of oncoming traffic far enough to safely complete the pass. Do not pass in a designated "No Passing Zone."

Safely passing equipment. When passing, be extra-cautious and patient; be watchful of other vehicles. A farmer understands he is moving very slow and will move to the side to let you pass. Please be patient as there may be some soft, wet shoulders that preclude the immediate movement of equipment but the grower will move to the side as soon as possible.

Equipment on a back road. When a motorist encounters a large piece of equipment on a back road, the farm equipment may be too large to move off the road. In order to keep the flow of traffic moving, please find the nearest driveway to pull into and let the equipment pass.

CHURCH ROBBERY SUSPECT HAD PRIOR FELONIES

By Linda Cicoira

The Onancock woman who was accused on May 24 of armed robbery at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Onley has been convicted of 23 other felonies, according to records filed in Accomack General District Court.

Bertisha Rose Johnson, 52, of Bayside Road, confessed to the latest crimes, the report also stated. The native Eastern Shore woman, a poultry plant worker, is accused of robbery, abduction and use of a firearm. Joanne Boyko was named in the record as a victim. Johnson is being held without bond in Accomack Jail.

The incident was reported to the Accomack County Sheriff's Office at 12:18 p.m. The suspect was believed to have fled on foot. However, Trooper Kurt Johnson was doing a stationary radar of vehicles on Drummondtown Road not long afterwards and the suspect was seen going 41 in a 25 mph zone. She failed to stop and the officer chased the 2001 Ford Focus. He backed "up to try to block the vehicle and was struck," the trooper wrote in his report. "The vehicle went southbound in the northbound lane. I had to go and turn around to follow," he wrote.

The suspect continued to flee. The vehicle was found abandoned in Parksley. The suspect was arrested on Adams Road in Greenbush by Accomack deputies. Investigator Edward Perry, of ACSO, investigated. In addition to the church incident, she was charged with felony eluding, felony assault of a law enforcement officer and multiple traffic infractions.

The murder trial of Zachary Isaiah Townsend was continued last week in Accomack Circuit Court. It was set for May 31. The defendant requested the postponement and was given until June 16 to decide how to proceed with the case.

Townsend was 17 years old when Nathaniel (Nate) Adam Ayres, 19, of Deer Drive in Nelsonia, was shot to death last August. He is being held without bond on charges of first-degree murder, robbery and use of a firearm in those crimes. Townsend will be tried as an adult.

Ayres was gunned down at the intersection of Nock's Landing and Greta roads near Atlantic. A report of a shooting was made to Sheriff Todd Godwin's office at 12:45 a.m., Aug. 12. When deputies, state troopers and rescuers arrived at the scene, Ayres' body was found.

According to an autopsy report, Ayres died from gunshot wounds to the head, neck and torso. He was found lying next to a vehicle. There were six injuries. Two were "penetrating gunshot wounds to the right side of the head." There was a "penetrating gunshot wound to the back of the lower head/upper neck, penetrating close contact gunshot wound to the right anterior shoulder, perforating gunshot wound of the right upper arm and bullet impact injury to the right flank." Four bullets could be seen in images that were taken during the autopsy.

A search warrant disclosed that at least two people saw Ayres get killed.

The suspects, Austin Daniel Watson, 21, of Highland Park; Lesley Thomas Reid III, 21, of Joshua Lane; and Malik Alexander Cooper, 22, of Joshua Lane; were charged with abduction, robbery, malicious assault and assault by a mob.

Sgt. Thomas Hickman of the Chincoteague Police Department, said Ford said in addition to being assaulted by all three suspects, one at a time, he was dragged into a house and beaten when he tried to leave. They are also accused of taking his wallet and $140 in cash.

The three are free on bond. Watson and Reid are free on $20,000 secured bond each. Cooper was freed on $15,000 secured bond.

In another case, Raymond Charles Potoski Jr., 47, of Parksley Road in Parksley, was charged with making a bomb threat on May 23. Deputy S. E. Henning of the Accomack County Sheriff's Office investigated. Potoski is being held in Accomack Jail without bond.

EASTERN SHORE SPORTS

Custis Formally Commits to The Apprentice School Division III Football

By Krystle Bono

Nandua High School senior Tevin Custis signed his letter of intent Tuesday, May 23, to play division III football at The Apprentice School in Newport News.

The Apprentice School, founded in 1919, offers four-year, five-year and eight-year apprenticeship programs to its students across 19 shipbuilding disciplines and eight advanced studies programs.

Custis has been a four-year starter with the Warriors since his football debut during his freshman year. He was named to the Eastern Shore All-District First Team this past season as both an offensive and defensive lineman.

In 2014, Custis earned a spot on the first team offensive line as a sophomore. During his junior year, he made the second team as an offensive and defensive lineman.

Custis stated that from early on, he knew traditional college was not something he foresaw in his future, but trade school was on the radar and with the help of Deitrick Downing, who coaches both track and football at Nandua, he was able to make it happen.

“When I came to high school; I fell in love with it [trade school]. I kind of decided early on that college wasn’t the path that I wanted to choose and I met Mr. Downing and he showed me a good time during my high school years and he helped me pick out a school that was good [for me],” reflects Custis.

“Coach Downing helped me and pushed me and basically said this is what you should do, and he kind of helped keep me on track. He helped me meet people from that school and he also helped me get an interview,” he continued, “I met the coaches and some of the people that actually work at the shipyard there in Newport News and that’s pretty much why I chose it [The Apprentice School]. He’s just been really a big help this year.”

A Dallas Cowboys fan, Custis also confided that his freshman year was his first experience suiting up on the football field. Once he got a taste of the action, he was hooked and knew he wanted to continue playing for as long as he was afforded the opportunity.

talk to me,” says Custis.

During his time with the Apprentice School, Custis plans to study sheet metal as his trade. He hopes to one day be able to run his own business.

“I always loved playing football. My freshman year was my first year ever playing. It’s when you make that play; it just lives with you forever. You just want to keep getting better. You don’t just want to stop there – you want to see what you could be if you keep playing.”

Custis says that his favorite player is J.J. Watt.

However, he also looks up to his older brother, Jamal Bailey, who also graduated from Nandua.

“I look up to mainly my older brother. He graduated from here [Nandua] with a 4.0 and is in the military now. Even though he’s a busy, he still makes time to

By Krystle Bono

The Northampton Yellow Jackets boys varsity soccer team was crowned the 1A East Conference 41 Champions last Friday evening after defeating Appomattox Regional Governor's School, 6-2, on Hamilton Field in Eastville.

Northampton entered the conference finals by a confident 11-1 bid over the Franklin Broncos on May 24, in Eastville. The Yellow Jackets will now move on to the 1A East Region Championships.

The Nandua Warriors and the Arcadia Firebirds also took part in their respective conference tournament last week.

Nandua defeated Arcadia, 1-0, in the semi-final round of the 2A East Conference 33 contest May 24, in Onley, to eliminate the Firebirds and move the Warriors to host the finals match against Maggie Walker last Friday.

After a close battle, Maggie Walker would take the championship by a one-goal lead, 3-2, over Nandua. The Warriors will still have the opportunity to play in the 2A East Region Championships this week with a second-best showing in the conference.

Ruritans Announce Eleventh Annual Bayside Poker Run

The Pungoteague Ruritan Club will sponsor its annual small boat "poker run" on Saturday, July 29. This 11th annual Bayside Poker Run will be a fun day on the waters of the Chesapeake Bay and adjoining creeks in the club's community service area.

Any boat owner may register to participate in the event, which is an opportunity to explore the Bay from Onancock Creek to Nandua Creek in a fun and leisurely finish. It is not a race, but simply boaters choosing their own course and own pace to locate and visit five pre-chosen locations designated on a nautical chart with notes and guidelines.

Registration for the event is $90; Captains may include as many crew members aboard as Coast Guard regulations allow. Registration forms must be received in advance and will be limited to the first 30 boats and are available from any Pungoteague Ruritan member or by calling Paul Custis at 757-442-2931.

Registration forms are also available at Sandpiper Marine, Western Auto in Exmore, Shore Marine, Davis Wharf Marine, Don's Tackle Shop, K&E Marine, Deep Creek Marina, Island House Restaurant, Seaworthy Marine, H.W. Drummond, Mallard's at the Wharf and Eastern Shore Outfitters.

Competition in the event will be in two parts. The "navigational skill" part will be for boaters to plot a course which will enable them to "log in" at five specific locations within designated time allowances. These locations will be spread among Onancock, Pungoteague, and Nandua creeks and will be disclosed to all captains simultaneously at a captains' meeting on the morning of the event. Points in this competition will also be earned in 'survivor-type' challenges in various activities.

The "luck" part of the event will involve boaters picking up a playing card at each of the five locations and bringing a poker hand to a final destination at 5 p.m. At this location all boats meet to disclose their hands and have navigation sheets evaluated.

The navigation prize will be $500 and the poker prize will be a fall vacation getaway package of equal value for a grand prize total value of $1,000. Additional 'dock prize' drawings will be held for fishing gear, boating accessories, and other marine items. Complimentary hotdogs and hamburgers will be enjoyed during the awards ceremony at a beautiful bayside setting.

Proceeds from this event will benefit the club's scholarship program and its handicapped access ramp project fund.

Fishing from the Shore

By Bill Hall

For the third consecutive weekend, the weather was more inconsistent than the fishing. Breezy conditions and rain muddied the waters along the seaside, producing a damper on flounder fishing.

The first offshore trips have been made from Eastern Shore ports, resulting in catches of dolphin (mahi mahi). Large mako, hammerhead and dusky sharks are prowling the offshore waters from 30 fathoms out to the canyons for those who want to try their luck with those toothy critters.

The lower Shore black drum fishing has peaked and catches are falling off, however cobia are starting to show up in the same areas that have been productive for black drum.

And speaking of cobia, cobia season opened on June 1 and runs through Sept. 15. The VMRC has instituted a mandatory Recreational Cobia Permit for anglers wishing to retain the fish. Permits are free and available at <https://webapps.mrc.virginia.gov/public/mpermits/index.php> There is a one-fish per-person limit and no more than three fish are allowed per boat, with only one measuring 50 inches or longer. The minimum size limit is 40 inches.

A reminder, it is illegal to gaff a cobia, so a large landing net is a must. In addition, all of your cobia fishing trips, as well as the fish harvested or caught and released, must be reported to the VMRC.

Lower Shore – Mark Snook, from Chris's Bait & Tackle, reported catches of sheepshead have been made along the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel and up around Buoy 13. Some small black drum remain near the bridge. The run of large red drum continues, with Nautilus Shoal being named as one of the most productive areas. Sea mullet (whiting) and a few croaker were caught over the Cabbage Patch. The shop has already recorded the first cobia releases of the season.

Wachapreague – Capt. Lindsay Paul, of Trident Tackle, reported that the windy and rainy conditions of last weekend have taken its toll on the flounder fishing, with a few successful catches being made on the flats on squid and minnow combinations. The first offshore trip of the season to an area 20 miles south of the Norfolk Canyon resulted in a catch of dolphin.

Don's Tackle reported that flounder fishing improved once the water began to clear. "Decent" catches came from Drawing Channel off Wachapreague and Sandy Island Drain off Quinby. The shop saw fish in the 20- to 22-inch class. Top baits were pink and white Fin Strikes in the clearer water, while the chartreuse/yellow color pattern produced in off-color water. The black drum fishery near the inlet has been on the decline.

Chincoteague – Donna Rae, at Capt. Bob's, blamed the recent winds for the downturn in flounder fishing. Catches were made in Assateague Channel and Queen Sound with silversides, live minnows and pink Gulps, all producing flatfish catches. Three- to four-pound bluefish were active in the Chincoteague Channel, preying on baits intended for flounder. Robert Lynch dominated the shop's recent flounder tournament, taking first place with a three-fish aggregate weighing 9-15, he also had the largest bluefish in the contest at 3-7. Ray Fogle finished in second place with three fish totaling 9-12. The largest flounder weighed 3-14.

Jimmy, at Capt. Steve's Bait & Tackle, reported that rockfish and drum catches have slowed in the surf, but the shop did see a bluefish measuring 35.5 inches caught from the beach. The shop has a supply of fresh bunker for anglers targeting blues.

Flounder fishing took an upswing following the nasty weather, with some limit catches coming from Chincoteague Channel to Four Mouths, and further south near Gargatha. A few kingfish (whiting) have also shown up. Capt. John, aboard The Huntress, had a limit of seabass from an offshore wreck with the largest fish weighing in at 5-2. The run of black sea bass on Blackfish Banks have been mostly undersized.

Upper Bay – Matt Abell, at Sea Hawk Sports Center, reported that anglers casting over grass beds in the shallows were finding lots of small rockfish, but most are undersized, as well as some speckled trout. Top lures have been the Bass Assassins in the "albino ghost" color pattern as well as the Bomber Badonk-A-Donk SS in the blue black pattern. Red drum continue to be caught in the shallows from Bernard Island to Foxes Island, with soft crabs being the most productive baits. I can verify the abundance of small rockfish around the marsh islands, but have yet to catch a keeper!

Bill Hall was the first Eastern Shore resident to achieve Virginia Salt Water Master Angler Status. He has been named Virginia Saltwater Angler of the Year and Virginia Saltwater Release Angler of the Year. Bill is an I.G.F.A. International Committee Representative and a longtime member of the Virginia Saltwater Fishing Tournament Committee. He is the Virginia Recreation Fishing representative on the ASMFC Striped Bass Management Panel and is a past recipient of the CCA-VA Virginia Outdoor Writer Conservation Leadership Award.

Hundreds turned out on Memorial Day to dedicate a memorial to Accomack County veterans.

New Memorial Reminds: Freedom Isn't Free

Story and Photos by Linda Cicaira

Hundreds turned out to commemorate Memorial Day and witness the unveiling of the new war monument in Parksley Monday that honors 82 from Accomack who died in World Wars I and II, and the wars in Korea and Vietnam.

It started almost two years ago with Shirley Burkhead Johnson's quest to erect a plaque in honor her youngest sibling, Cpl. Jerry Burkhead, a Marine, who died in Vietnam.

Johnson and her 11 brothers and sisters grew up across a field from former Supervisor Kay Lewis in Lee Mont. Johnson and Lewis began work on the project in August 2015 with the help of Parksley Mayor Jim Eichelberger. The idea eventually grew into the much bigger project and others joined them.

The town donated the property near the train station, more than $35,000 was raised and a monument was designed by funeral director John T. Williams. Individuals and organizations, including the Brothers in Arms Motorcycle Club, came forward to donate. Granite memorial benches and the traditional POW empty chair, a symbol of those lost in combat but not forgotten, surround the monument. Flags of all the nation's armed services are also flown there.

After graduating from Parksley High School in 1966, Burkhead joined the Marine Corps. and was deployed to Vietnam from Camp Pendleton in November 1967. Burkhead was killed in action during the Tet Offensive on Feb. 8, 1968, in Quang Tri, South Vietnam, on Hill 64, near Khe Combat Base.

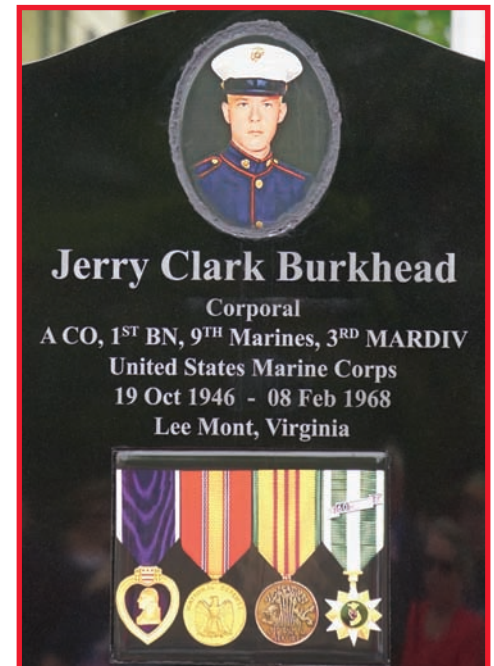

Twenty-three American soldiers died there that day and 29 were wounded. A fellow Marine, Willi Lauderbach of North Carolina, who survived being shot 12 times during the offensive, was in attendance to speak at the unveiling, along with other veterans and active service members.

In addition to Johnson, who lives in Lee Mont, Burkhead's siblings, J.D. Burkhead of Parksley, Judy Burkhead Zimmerman of Nebraska, Joe Burkhead of Westover, Md., Maxine Burkhead Cherrix of Hertford, N.C., and Janet Burkhead Williams of Poquoson, Va., attended. The oldest is 89. Jim and Cheryl Arnold, friends of Jerry Burkhead, came from Ohio for the event. The veteran would have been 70.

"For America, freedom, liberty, has come at a terrible cost," said veteran Chaplain Albert Crockett. "Our hearts are touched, as we think of that first group of patriots who, poorly clothed and half starved, untrained and badly equipped, faced death in order to secure for us, a nation."

"Two thousand of them died from exposure during that terrible winter at Valley Forge, and the movements of the Army ... could be traced by bloody footprints in the snow," he continued. "It was that spirit which made this nation great, and which was reflected again and again through the years that followed; World War I, in the Argonne Forrest, the Bello Woods, at Pearl Harbor, Bataan, Iwo Jima, the Battle of the Bulge, the 38th Parallel, Parkshop Hill, Vietnam, Iraq, Afghanistan and countless other places. America has been made great not so much by her might, but by the resources of her spirit found in the hearts of a brave people who knew there are some things worth dying for.”

Nancy Johnson, of Accomac (no relation to Shirley Johnson), chose to spend part of her Memorial Day at the celebration. “I come from a long line of military,” she said, listing her husband, father, brother, grandson, and others. “I saw my mother serve, too, behind the lines,” she said, referring to the hardships faced by military spouses.

Johnson said none of her family members died in military service. “It’s so sad we have lost so many,” she said, reflecting on the names carved into the monument. “But we’re so proud they were willing to serve.”

Fun in All Sheeps and Sizes

Art and Music on the Farm, an annual celebration at the Barrier Island Center, had something for everyone. While flatfoot dancers shuffled along a dance floor to bluegrass music, others browsed art, plants, and interacted with live animals. Eden and Matt Ertle, and their son, Tommy, brought some of their flock of sheep from Island View Farm in Seaview, including this 3 month old.

Health Matters Healthy and Safe Swimming

Courtesy of The Virginia Department of Health

This time of year marks the unofficial start of summer with the opening of pools and water parks. As water temperatures rise, so do visits to Virginia's beaches, lakes and rivers. Healthy and Safe Swimming Week focuses on the steps everyone can take to have a healthy and safe swimming experience.

In the pool:

- Stay out of the water if you have diarrhea.
- Practice proper personal hygiene.
- Don't swallow the water.
- Every hour take kids on bathroom breaks. Change diapers in the restroom, not poolside, to keep germs away from the pool.
- Read and follow directions on pool chemical product labels.
- Wear appropriate safety equipment (goggles, for example) when handling pool chemicals.
- Secure pool chemicals to protect people, particularly children and animals, from accidental exposure.

- NEVER add pool chemicals when the pool is in use, and only add them poolside when directed by the product label.

In natural waters:

- Look for beach advisory signs along public access points or along the beach. Many public beaches in Virginia are monitored for bacteria levels. An advisory is posted if these levels are too high. If the beach is under advisory, stay out of the water.
- All natural bodies of water contain bacteria, including salt water. Salty water will not disinfect wounds. If you have broken skin, stay out of the water.
- Avoid swimming in natural waters for at least three days after heavy rain.
- Don't swim when you are sick. You can spread germs in the water and make other people sick.
- Avoid getting water up your nose. Use a nose clip or plug your nose before going under the water.
- If you become sick after being in the water, report your water activities to your doctor.

- Shower with soap and water before and after swimming.
- Keep children and pets from swimming in scummy water. If you see mats of algae or discolored green, red, or brown water, an algae bloom may be present.
- Report harmful algal blooms or large groups of dead fish at 888-238-6154.

It is also important to remember that drowning is the leading cause of injury and death for children ages 1-4. To keep swimmers safe in the water:

- Make sure everyone knows how to swim.
- Use life jackets.
- Provide continuous attentive supervision near swimmers.
- Know CPR. Find a class near you.
- Use sunscreen. Apply sunscreen before applying insect repellent.
- Install and maintain barriers like 4-sided fencing and weight-bearing pool covers.

- Use locks or alarms for pool access points.

Tired of What you See? Take a Good Look!

By Carla Savage-Wells
Special to the Eastern Shore Post

Why, Yes! It seems that everywhere we look, there is violence, pettiness, greed, deceit, poverty, ignorance and illness. The media is rife with stories of moral decline, global warming, data security, gun violence, poor sleep, sagging skin, and bigger bellies. But let's take a good look.

Sophocles, the ancient Greek playwright, said, "Look, and you will find it – what is unsought, will go undetected." John Lubbock, a nineteenth century British statesman and scientist, is quoted as saying, "What we see depends mainly on what we look for." So I say, "Let's choose to take a good look."

It is indeed difficult to avoid the news media. It's believed that we are so starved for "infotainment," that gas pumps, refrigerator doors and restaurant tables must now be equipped with monitors (Are they still called televisions?) that provide us with up-to-the-minute coverage of the latest in news, sports, political put-downs, fleeting fads, and dastardly daredevils, dudes and debutantes. Many of us work to counter the constant stream of negative information that comes our way, by reading or sharing Bible and motivational quotations, posting pet pictures, sharing family milestones, or glorious sunsets, which luckily occur daily here on the Shore.

Speaking of the Shore; we could also skirt the darker side of life by taking a good look at our community. With wild weather conditions occurring all around us, I believe we've all expressed wonder and thanks about how our area is often spared the wrath of Mother Nature. Certainly we have some wind and high water, but Delmarva is one of the nation's sweet spots when it comes to weather. (Those of you who knock on wood, should do so, now.) Take a good look, off Rt. 13 when you can, at the beautiful Eastern Shore.

Let's take a good look up. A good look up from our cell phones, "fit" watches, and computer screens will hopefully yield more smiling faces, and pleasant surroundings than the opposite.

Take a good look. There is good in the world and it can be found if we seek it. A really good look will reveal festivals and gatherings featuring music or art to benefit a worthy cause. A really good look will reveal opportunities to volunteer in the community: the food bank, nursing homes, the Boy or Girl Scouts or Boys or Girls Clubs, the Literacy Council and Relay for Life are all organizations that would allow others to take a good look at their gift of service to others and perhaps be inspired to do the same.

Let's take a good look at our families. Though it may seem that we ordinary folks are powerless to lessen the chaos going in the world, a good look at those nearest us will reveal their best qualities, strengths, gifts and attributes. A good look will also reveal the areas where a bit more tenderness and attention could uncover a kinder, gentler view of the mean old world, and encourage them to take a good look towards brightening the corner where they are.

Since we do, indeed, find what we look for; let's look for the good and celebrate all that we find.

School Board Shouldn't Influence Selection Commission

Dear Editor:

For years I had been on the fence about the use of an appointed committee for selecting school board members, but after reading your article about the public hearing of the Accomack County School Board Selection Commission of May 23, I am now of the opinion that the election process is a better way to go.

The first of several problems is that school board members were present. That was tolerable, but then they spoke. In an election process, their presence and their voices would be viewed as a right of our democracy, but in the closed, restricted system of a School Board Selection Commission, their presence and their voices smack of nepotism. It is not the business of a school board to generate its own membership; such practice is more like that of a private club.

The Code of Ethics by which the board should operate aims to promote behavior of the highest integrity even when faced with exhortation. This code seeks to inspire problem solving among the group at a level able to discover underlying issues to any complaint or criticism, and then to resolve them fairly. Members of a school board should never resort to pejorative remarks as a technique of problem solving. Such behavior - unchecked in a board - leads eventually to diminished competency and disintegration of trust.

The Accomack School Board's Code of Ethics begins, "I will have integrity in all matters..." It is a very high standard. Present and future school board members, please know, the culture of our schools begins with you. Integrity. All matters.

Medicaid Expansion Helps Most Vulnerable

Dear Editor:

Many of the elements of our infrastructure are under-resourced in rural areas, but there is something we can do to shore up one of our most critical systems - health care. While partisan discussions are ongoing in Washington about the shape of our national health care system, red and blue states have taken a step towards greater security for the most vulnerable members of our community by expanding Medicaid as provided for under the Affordable Care Act, our current system. Virginia has the opportunity to join 31 other states in offering coverage for people making up to 138 percent of the federal poverty level, or about $16,640 for an individual.

Accessible health care is something our community has shown it values, as shown by what Riverside Hospital, Eastern Shore Rural Health, and other community providers do to help those without the ability to pay. But these providers are stretched by the needs of people without insurance and many of our neighbors either don't seek the care they need because they lack insurance or are financially crippled by medical bills they can't pay.

As a person of faith, I believe that communities reflect the beloved community that Martin Luther King Jr. talked about, when they seek the good of all their residents, especially those living on the edge. That's a biblical value. It's for that reason that I support Medicaid expansion in Virginia.
